

Corrosion Technologists

Under the direction of the Project Manager you would perform cathodic protection duties on assigned projects – duties related to testing and installation of cathodic protection systems. You would

- Understand the scope of work and requirements of client.
- Be familiar with all equipment and materials required to perform project.
- Collect and review gathered data and address anomalies.
- Update cathodic protection drawings as required.
- Ensuring all field data is complete and forwarded to Manager in a timely manner.

Qualifications Required:

Technical Diploma or equivalent. Must have strong interpersonal, communication, analytical and problem-solving skills. ASET registration, NACE certification and/or related professional experience are considered as asset.

To explore this opportunity, please submit your resume, in confidence to:

Human Resources Department

Corrpro Canada, Inc.

10848 – 214 Street

Edmonton, Alberta T5J 2J9

Email: hr1@corrpro.ca

Fax: 780/447-3215